Dedication

No man can render greater service to his community than he who gives unselfishly of his time and energy in an honest endeavor to improve the public schools. John Guddall has served as a member of the the Board of Education of Union High School District Number 4 for eighteen consecutive years. His friendly spirit, unbounded enthusiasm, and sound advice have contributed much to the educational advancement of this community.

Mr. Guddall was largely responsible for the erection in 1939 of the splendid auditorium-gymnasium addition to the Central Grade School. He was this year reelected without opposition to serve another three-year term on the local grade school Board of Education. The faith that the people of the community have placed in him is indicative of his success. He is a true friend and a humble servant of public education.

Foreword

The staff of the Kumptux has worked diligently in order to make an annual that will not only be entertaining at present but will also help preserve in years to come the memories of events and fellow students at Sedro-Woolley High School during 1940.

Working with students, faculty, pictures, and write-ups, we have each gained something that time cannot take away. We hope you will enjoy each page of this book as much as we did in making it.

Perhaps you have heard the little rhyme: "The pleasant little river is with the drifting folks are crammed; the easy roads are crowded and the level roads are jammed; where the going is smooth and pleasant you will always find the throng; for the many more's the pity seem to like to drift along."

Many people just drift on the sea of life. They have no definite destination. They live in the hope that at some future date the tide will bear them good fortune.

Some people, on the other hand, achieve. They have a definite destination. They follow a specific course. They realize that real physical and mental energy is required to reach a goal.

Nothing worthwhile will ever come to the boy or girl who just sits and dreams. If opportunities are numerous for the young man or the young woman who is willing to put forth effort of the type that will later find expression in an enriched life and a strengthened character.

Student Government

The Executive Council determines Associated Student activities. This organization is composed of A.S.B. officers, representatives from each class, editors of the publications, and three faculty advisers. It meets ten days preceding each assembly and discusses the business which may arise, thus enabling the actual meeting to progress with ease and rapidity. The faculty advisers are Miss Una Stewart, Mr. Kenneth Driskill, and Mr. Tom Mullen.

A new form of student self-government has been introduced this year and is known as the Forum. This representative group meets every two weeks on Tuesday, and is a cleaning house for any student problems which arise around school. While this has been a trial year for the Forum, this organization has nevertheless a splendid record of accomplishments in its wake. Courtesy Week, for instance, succeeded in making every student "manners minded." Since the innovation of the Forum, conduct in the halls and at school functions has greatly improved. A boys' hall patrol suggested by the Forum, with Laurence Hunter as chairman, has been largely responsible for the improved conditions in the halls. This patrol has had the cooperation of the students and has proved to be very worthwhile.

David McIntyre heads the Forum as president, Laurence Hunter is vice-president, and Merle Stanley is secretary. Mrs. Mable Bergholz, Mr. Tom Mullen, and Mr. Sverre Omdahl are the faculty advisers. Altogether there are fifteen members. The Forum and Executive Council are to be commended for their fine work throughout the year.

A school without pep is worse than a ship without a sail. If the song and yell leaders are unable to kindle the spark of loyalty and enthusiasm in the student body, they are beaten before they start. But no such problem arose to dampen the spirits of S.W.'s peppy cheer leaders. The song and yell leaders have found the Sedro-Woolley student body a group ready and willing to give vent to their school spirit in songs and yells. If school spirit can be measured by the quality and volume of the songs and yells given at games and assemblies, the student body has certainly proved it has an abundance of it. This year Wayne Hegg, yell king, and Lloyd Marhugh and Roger Hammond, yell dukes, succeeded in bringing out plenty of volume in the yells, while LaVerne Swanson and Marian Henderson, song leaders, inspired the cheering section to sing its best.

A. S. B. OFFICERS: Studebaker, president; Harang, vice-president; Stanley, secretary; Hudson, treasurer.

Will and Prophecy

Feeling confident that we are still sane of mind and sound of body in spite of having been bullied by our teachers for four long years, and believing that we should not pass from these halls without giving over to posterity a few of the characteristics that have contributed to our famousness (not to mention our infamousness), we, the class of 1940, hereby publish our last will and testament:

Jim Sanders leaves his part in the senior play to the chemistry room. (Confidentially, it steunks)

Dave McIntyre to Roger Hammond leaves his size 42 sweater . . . Judson Van Liew bequeaths his hair on his chest to Gene Johnson for future stage mustaches . . . Jack Peterson gives Norm Finsen his ability to swing a mean chopper in dissecting cow cutlets . . . Bob Bassett gives his crooning ability to Jackie Iech . . . Wyman Hammer leaves his ability to have a good time to anyone who has an Ingersoll handy . . . Red Hunter having chased Bugs Anderson for four years finally leaves her to another Hunter . . . Merle Stanley bequeaths her ability to make extemporaneous speeches to Captain Norm Lisherness because he won't recite in class anyway . . . Bill Meins to Orris Ebbeson leaves his ability to move faster than anyone else in school . . . To Alvin Schacht, Ralph Stendal gives his beastful gift of gab . . . Roberta Humble leaves her ability to play gangster moll roles on stage to Lucille Robinson . . . Punk Clifford gives his ability to "swing on down" to Stanley Holton . . . Mike Pizzuto leaves his ability to squeeze the squeeze box to Wesley Holmes

After taking a cockeyed squint in the crystal ball, it was possible to see these strange situations which were mirrored there. Arthur Hartvig has been reelected by a big majority to his post of city dog catcher. Keep up the good work, Art! . . . Virginia Jessett will serve another term as mayor of Sedro-Woolley . . . Gilbert Johnson has been newly elected as mayor of the up and coming little city, Big Lake . . . Those two famous women scientists, Ethel Palmer and Winnifred Thresher, have just completed their first observation with their new 300-inch telescope. They announce the awe-inspiring discovery that the moon is not made of green cheese . . . Bernie Linvog is now house to house demonstrator for "Bright and Shiny" Tooth Grease . . . Bob Knowlton, successor to Paderwhiski, will begin grooming Marge Moen . . . e musical part in "You Can't Take It With You" . . . Bert Schrader, World's Heavyweight Boxing Champion for the past two years, has finally been defeated. He was knocked out last night in the second round of a scheduled fifteen . . . I fight by Elver Huntley . . . How many of us are going to the Sedro-Woolley Opera House next Sunday night to hear the operatic debut of Marilyn Johnson? . . . Winton Klaus will be the stage manager for the production "Sleeping Beauty," starring Norm Lindbloom . . . LaVerne Swanson is still waiting for Bob Cook to get over his bashfulness . . . Ruth Stoute and Rod . . . Robertson are making their final appearance in the opera "Rigoletto" before retiring to their mansion in McMurray . . . John Mulbeier is touring Hoogdal on the money he won from the Irish Sweep Stakes.

JUNIORS

Being an energetic and peppy group this year's juniors show great promise as future leaders. In Beiro-Winley High Members of the class participated in the A. S. B. Play, H. N. E. under sports and are represented in the Honor Society.

Highlighting their social year, the class of 1941 presented their prom. Sports Field on December 1. With much hard work, the class is credited with the arenas, interior and sports parade. Names well known in high school athletics were spelled on the side walls with the names of their respective sports. Sports field for S. W. S. party championship and men boxing gloves for the playoffs and members of the basketball team were named in an array of baseball.

By popular vote at a special meeting of the junior class Joe Hunter and Mixie McDougal were elected king and queen of the festivities. Each received a box of candy at their coronation during intermission. Arthur Newman's swing band provided the music.

Social committees worked with Elaine Thompson who was general chairman. They were dance committee Chairman Joe Hunter, Queeny Buchanan, Ole Jensen, Little Linder, Martin Henderson, Chairman of the Chairman Burnie Anderson, Ward Anderson, George Jensen, Chairman, Harold Johnson, Doris Haden, Ed Gerrard, Chairman of the Chairman, Dan S. Jensen, Chairman, Mixie McDougal, Chairman of the Chairman, Beverly Moore, Frank Haden, Ruth Dine, Chairman of the Chairman, Peggy Linder, Ray Bersten, Burnie Mark, Marjorie Jensen, Chairman of the Chairman, Joe White, Samy Jensen, Arthur Mark, Harold Bark.

At the prom, the class of 1941 had a most successful night. The prom was held at the D. H. Jensen, Chairman, Mixie McDougal, secretary, Dan Jensen, treasurer, and Dorothy Buchanan, social leader, Roger Ham, chairman, and Frank Haden, representative to the A. S. B. Executive Council. The year has passed so fast that it is hard to believe that the members of the class have already reached the halfway mark of their high school career. They have set up new goals for the future and are determined to achieve them when they hope to conquer. The class has proved a worth while for stepping into the upper grades, and as when it is over they will have a lot to remember.

They have shown their love of learning and have been well represented in all school activities.

As the class reaches the halfway mark with hours to go to work upon the first two years of its high school career and hopes its next two are as successful as the first.

This year's class officers have been Mr. McNamee, president; Beach, vice president; Bell, secretary; and Welch, treasurer. Mr. Glenn Hall has acted as adviser.

I N A C T I O N

These candid shots are typical views of students engaged in class work provided in various school departments. The curriculum offered in Union High School District No. 4 is broad and gives students training in both vocational and cultural subjects.

The last period each day is set aside for activties. During this time students are given the opportunity of pursuing a large number of hobbies under the supervision of a faculty member.

This school is fortunate in having one of the state's best high school cafeterias which has been ably managed for six years by Mrs. Robert Parker.

ATHLETICS

Sports Review

After a great deal of planning and organizing, the Lions Club made it possible last fall for Sedro-Woolley to have flood lights installed on Greene Memorial Field, the first on any athletic field in the county. The Associated Students are deeply appreciative of the interest and untiring zeal the Lions Club showed while working for this project. As a result of their enterprise, the gate receipts from football increased 50 per cent over previous years. The new lights were officially presented at the Bellingham game.

While each sport has its own section in the annual, this page gives a brief resume of all sports. The Cubs under Coach Tom Mullen tied for the Skagit County football championship. For the first time since football has been a major sport, the Cubs played ten games, a very heavy schedule for a high school team. Much credit for the Cubs' excellent showing in this sport is due Coach Mullen.

Next came basketball, and to Coach Omdahl should tribute for excellent coaching be given. The team developed to top ranking birth and entered the district tournament. There the Cubs were nosed out by Blaine, 50-45, and Marysville, 55-27. Developed from a squad of only two lettermen, the Cub casaba tossers improved steadily until they were the cream of the county basketball crop.

The Cub boxing team was generally considered the best amateur mitt-slugging team in Western Washington. Coach Bill Mullen's squad engaged in six smokers and lost but one. In their four home smokers, the Cubs drew some of the biggest crowds that have ever been in the gym. Except for the smoker with Fife, Coach Kenneth Driskill's mat-men won every smoker in which they engaged. Despite this one defeat, the Cubs were generally considered to be as good as any high school wrestlers in the state. Congratulations are in order.

The three spring sports squads were just getting well underway at press time. Coaches and teams are working hard. In regard to track, it should be mentioned here that Shelton '39 set a record in the high hurdles in the 1938 district meet. He also holds records for the county and relay carnival in 1939. His best time, made in the county race, was 15.2. In last year's state meet, E. Silverthorn, failing in his attempt to set a new record, tied in the pole vault with a 12' 5" jump. In the county meet, S. W. took all four places in the broad jump totaling 81' 4".

In the opening game of the season with an out-of-county team, the B. Raiders managed to conquer the ball by a score of 18-12. The locals' first in the third period, when Johnny Jech tute halfback, whipped a long pass "Slick" Ellestad, who proceeded to run end zone for a score. Olie Harang made the other Cub score by plunging through the line.

proved to be a 39-0 walkaway in favor of the charging blue and white. Next the Cubs invaded Anacortes, confident of a victory over the Seahawks. However, this tussle ended in a 5-5 tie and a tie with the Hawks for the Skagit County title. Anacortes put up the best competition that the Cubs had during the season, and only after Harang, Jech, and Anderson carried the ball on successive ground plays, was S. W. able to score. Due to crooked goal posts, the Cub try for point went wild. Anacortes then scored on a series of passes to tie the score with one minute to go.

The Cubs' traditional Thanksgiving Day battle with Mt. Vernon's Bulldogs proved a complete rout for the visitors, the Cubs having everything their way in a game finally ending 50-0 for the locals. This victory crowned the Cubs' efforts for the season.

Nine S. W. players were chosen on the all county team. Cratsenberg, rugged center; Hunter, standout tackle; Lisherness, flashy halfback; Wardell, defensive guard; Harang, driving fullback; McIntyre, giant tackle; Scott, blocking quarterback; Ellestad, crashing end; and Pizuto, tough guard, placed on this mythical eleven. Kell and Greathouse were named on the second team.

In addition to those we mentioned, the following won letters: Austin, Anderson, Baller, Clifford, Gee, Hammer, Hinchey, Jech, Knowlton, W. Meins, Snelson, Stendal, and Wolslegel. Silves and Smallwood received manager awards.

The team coached by Harmon Colby defeated Anacortes 30-0 and Mt. Vernon 32-0. The Forest School, under Elmer Isvick, played one losing one and winning one.

Maplecourt Champions

In the closest game yet witnessed in many a year, until the last minute, the local quintet won. Coach Omdahl won the Skagit County Championship for the second consecutive year. Two Cub players named on all-county first selections were Meins, forward, and N. Lisherness center. Bob Cogdill, forward, placed on the all-county second team. Floyd Cratsenberg, guard, was voted the most inspirational player by his teammates and was given the coach's inspirational trophy.

With only two losses, the Cub finished first in the county race, Anacortes Seahawks running a close second. The 1940 season was beginning to Mt. Baker, 35-30. The following games were: Marysville 21, W; Anacortes, 37, S.W. 17; Coupsville 14, S.W. 16; Lynden 28, S.W. 24; Ferndale 33, S.W. 46. Scores in the county games read: Edison 19, S.W. 17; Burlington 17, S.W. 34; Concrete 29, S.W. 30; Anacortes 34, S.W. 32; Mt. Vernon 35, S.W. 37; Burlington 32, S.W. 44; Hamilton 31, S.W. 54; LaCenner 19, S.W. 35; Anacortes 25, S.W. 27; and Mt. Vernon 26, S.W. 32.

The following men received letters: Honorary Captain Cogdill, N. Lisherness, Meins, Cratsenberg, Gee, Ellestad, Harang, Johnson, V. Lisherness, and Hunter.

Tracksters

At the time of going to press, Coach Colby's boys had a fair chance of repeating last year's feat and grabbing the county title. Although little new material turned up in the inter-class meet, which the sophomores won, S. W. had some fine new aspirants in addition to the returning lettermen.

The season began by winning from Mt. Vernon 57-65, and from Burlington 73 1 6—48 5 6. These are Woolley's two strongest opponents. Good showings in the Mt. Vernon meet were made by Hunter, shot put, 42' 9 $\frac{3}{8}$ "; Mitchell, mile, 4 min. 55 sec.; Harang, broad jump, 20'

1 $\frac{1}{4}$ "; Knowlton, javelin, 154' 4". Honors this year for the Cats rest with the following men: Knowlton, javelin; Harang, broad jump and discus; Smith, Ridgeway Trophy winner, 440-yard dash; Hunter, shot put; Stendal, good all-round participant; Larrabee and Hammer, high jump; and Mitchell, mile. Returning lettermen included Co-captains Knowlton and Harang. Smith, Mitchell, Stendal, and Hunter. Boys with a chance of making their letter are: Hammer, Stetson, Palmer, Adlington, Allen, Kelley, Ringer, Larrabee, Rothausen, and Wilson, manager.

Up to Bat

Winning two practice games and losing in the Cub baseball outlook was rather gloomy at the time of going to press. Woolley defeated Burlington 15-0; trounced Mt. Vernon Junior College 13-3; lost two different double headers to Everett, 8-4, 4-1, and 4-0, 9-0; and were defeated 6-0 by Hamilton.

The toughest teams still to be met are Anacortes and Mt. Vernon. With Meins, Lisherness, Goad, Gee, Studebaker, Scott, and Kell returning lettermen, as a nucleus, a squad of eighteen boys has been developed. Not all will receive letters. Bill Mullen is coach.

Ready, Serve

Under Coach Tom Mullen, the Cub netmen started their season by tying Burlington, playing two matches for two; then defeated Lynden 3 matches to 1. After playing a number of other practice matches, Sedro-Woolley climaxed its season by competing in the Skagit County tennis tournament.

The loss of every tennis letterman, through graduation, necessitated breaking in an entirely new team this year. Probable lettermen are: Byham, Evans, Peterson, Hunter, Bassett, and Hebert. With both the county singles and doubles championships to defend, the team, though inexperienced, shows promise of having a successful season.

Girls' Club

To inspire a feeling of friendliness and sympathy among the girls of the Woolley High School. All high school girls are invited to join the club. The club is open to all girls who are interested in social and personal development.

In order to help girls coming from other schools and begin participation in the school activities, a Big and Little Sister program was held at the beginning of the year. A senior girl was given the responsibility of being a guide throughout the year.

As a means of raising revenue, the Girls Club gave the play "The Men of the Moon" on the afternoon of January 26. This amusement was given by Miss Marion.

Hi-Nite, traditionally hilarious vaudeville, this year presented a more serious theme, a historical pageant depicting pioneer days in Sedro-Woolley and its vicinity. The production, directed by Mr. Glenn Hall, was not without humorous incidents, however, and interest was added to the show by the student portrayal of actual persons in the community.

These pioneer events were depicted for the audience: After much struggle by the first settlers in Skagit County, they finally won for themselves the formation of a school. The first school building was small and crudely built, but the settlers were proud of it. The naming of the town soon followed, and almost simultaneously the first edition of the "Skagit County Times" appeared.

Railroads then were none too reliable, but they did serve to open up the "wild and woolly" West. Charters were presented to the towns "Sedro" and "Woolley." There was a great deal of rivalry between the two towns, so they united to form Sedro-Woolley. Urgent need for establishing a county seat was apparent, but the campaign to have it located here failed.

Bob Fall's "Silver Threads Among the Gold"; "A Bicycle Built for Two," sung by Edythe and Elynore Egbert; harmony and humor by the Barber Shop Quartet composed of Fowler Walker, Larry King, J. R. Crawford, and Herbert Jones; and Bob Bassett's rendition of "A Bird in a Gilded Cage" provided entertainment characteristic of the time. An old-time dance, directed by Miss Vera Thompson, and a Can Can dance by Velma Reece, Roberta Humble, and Norma McLeod were in keeping with that period.

After the pageant, a touch of modernism was provided by the girls' trio, consisting of Marilyn Johnson, Beverly Moore, and Virginia Davis, accompanied by Miss Jeannette Smith; and an instrumental ensemble, directed by Mr. Arthur Newman, gave a musical background for the show.

"Three's a Crowd," a one-act comedy with a freshman and sophomore cast, directed by Miss McGilvrey, provided many laughs. The cast was as follows: Marilyn Jensen, Bob Doxsee, Jack Gaddis, Florence Moffett, and Allen McLean.

The athletic show in the gymnasium, directed by Miss Thompson, Mr. Omdahl, Mr. W. Mullen, and Mr. K. Driskill, met with general approval. Student managers were Wayne Heag and Bernice Anderson. Student directors of the main show were: Susan Batey, Frank Hebert, Edythe Egbert, and Jean Rogers.

After the athletic show the crowd went to the cafeteria where booths, sponsored by the classes and several activities, offered fun and food for everyone.

The Women Folks

What is a man to do when his women folks start an argument with his fiancée over a simple question such as: "Which way does the Leaning Tower of Pisa lean?" A humorous one-act play given before the Associated Students by the Girls' Club presented a solution for this complex problem.

Miss Marjorie McGilvrey directed the production and footlight trills were provided by Bernice Anderson, Fay Bierstedt, Marna Beebe, Joyce Boyd, Dons Holden, Ardelle Rey and Don Johnston. Don was borrowed from the Boys' Club for the performance.

Why the Chimes Rang

Elizabeth McFadden's beautiful Christmas play, "Why The Chimes Rang," was given before the Associated Students, on Friday, December 22. The story was built around the idea that "the gift without the giver is bare." The a capella choir singing from the balcony added to the effectiveness of the production.

The cast included: Bill Stiles, Emma Lee Holden, LaVerne Swanson, Herbert Drummond, Carl Miller, Lloyd Marshugh, Vera Harpst, Bill Studebaker, Elynore Egbert, Warren Brown, Elver Huntley, and Lorraine Swanson. Dolores Broe was prompter, and Miss Marjorie McGilvrey directed the production.

Braintrusters

Under Coach Una Stewart debate was a popular activity, drawing 22 students. A debater not only acquires the ability to speak but also gets a certain knowledge of his country's national problems. Debate subject this year was "How should we deal with the problem of the negro in the U. S.?" Besides debating with several schools in Central Valley, C. W. participated in a contest in Beaumont and a speech tournament at C.P.S.

Leonard Hudson won first place in the local tuberculosis essay contest and second in the county.

Arthur Harwood, R. J. Shryver, Marie Stanley, and LaVonne Swenson, who were chosen as delegates to attend the U. of W. High School Conference had an opportunity to view college life and bring back valuable information from the meetings.

Americanism was the subject chosen for the decoration contest by the Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion. Each contestant was required to compose his own speech and be prepared to deliver an extemporaneous talk on certain sections of the constitution. Contestants from Waukegan were Leonard Hudson and Marie Stanley. Marie won first in the local contest and third in the county trials.

Students' activities devote at least one hour each day to this work.
